BIOGRAPHY

Originally hailing from San Francisco and spending most of his life under the Texan sun. Christian crafted a sound for himself through dedicated time put into his own production and mixing style. A strong work ethic and honest approach to his craft sets Christian apart as a notable performer in his field.

Since relocating to Chicago from Austin Texas, Christian has found a home in the cities electronic music scene and has been busy performing regularly as well as curating events. His methods and technique behind the turntables have paved the way for club residencies and bookings playing areas in Mexico and in the US. Christian has shared the dj booth with a variety of artists such as Afriqua, Funk E, Horror Inc. , Oshana, tINI, Nick Curly and Osunlade among many others.

Christian's love for the studio keeps him well occupied exploring through sounds and machines with releases on such labels as Saint & Don't Music, Unscene Records, Draft LTD, P.U.N.C.H.I.S. and LTHM to name a few. The future is bright for this rising talent.
